ULSTER COUNTY EXECUTIVE MIKE HEIN STATEMENT ON GOVERNOR CUOMO'S EXECUTIVE BUDGET

“The simple reality is that New York State taxes are too high. I am encouraged to see Governor Cuomo make tough decisions, on behalf of the people, that will ultimately transition our state into a new era. For far too long, Albany has had a culture of fiscal mismanagement. As a result of Albany’s behavior, the taxpayers have suffered. Governor Cuomo’s Executive budget proposal, while painful, represents a new day of leadership in Albany. I look forward to working with the Governor to, once again, make New York State an affordable place to live, work and raise a family.”
