COUNTY EXECUTIVE HEIN REQUESTS NOMINATIONS FOR ULSTER COUNTY SENIOR OF THE YEAR

Kingston, N.Y. -- Every year, the Ulster County Office for the Aging Advisory Council, together with the County Executive Mike Hein and his Office for the Aging Director Anne Cardinale selects two extraordinary seniors as "Senior of the Year." The County Executive is seeking citizens who have made significant contributions to enhance the lives of seniors within their community.

"So many seniors positively impact our community in such diverse ways" said County Executive Hein. "Each year we recognize two extraordinary people who stand out among their peers. I look forward to hearing about all of the wonderful senior citizens that make Ulster County such a special place to live."

The two age categories for the "Senior of the Year" award are (1) age 60 to 74 and (2) age 75 and older. Nominations are welcome from anyone and must be submitted by March 28, 2011.

If you know anyone who deserves this recognition, please describe his/her accomplishment and/or contributions concisely and completely in one page or less. Include the nominees' address and phone number as well as your own contact information and submit this to: the Ulster County Office for the Aging 1003 Development Court, Kingston 12401. Please call the Office for the Aging at (845)-340-3456 or toll free at 1-877-914-3456 to get a nomination form or with any questions.
